Responsible: Team/Joyce/Jenny

This goal is related to the essential element of Education of Youth / Adults on Stewardship.

To educate our Youth (and Adults) on Stewardship as a way of life. To share how using our gifts not only betters ourselves, but all those we come in contact with.

Work with CFF and other Youth groups to assist them in educating and experiencing Stewardship as a Way of Life. This is a continuation of last years Goal and Objectives for sharing the Stewardship Way of Life.

Specific Objectives:

- Increase education and communications of Stewardship to our Youth through interaction with CFF and the Youth Groups of the Parish.
- Create a Steward Ship Doll for youth to care for, feed, clothe and teach Stewardship.
- Increase an Attitude of Gratitude through our Ministries. Working with Ministry Leaders to assist them in defining their ministries, and the blessings that come from the sharing of their time, talents and treasure.
- Use continues communications through the Bulletins, Monthly Newsletters, Pulpit, Speakers, and Witness Talks, to share the blessings that come from living a Stewardship Way of Life.
- Update and re-print the Parish Ministry Book.
- Educate Stewardship Committee and other Ministries through attendance at ICSC conference and other Diocesan Stewardship Activities.
- Continue the Parish Stewardship Festival, coinciding with the Diocese's Stewardship Weekend.
- Completion Date: Ongoing
